New European Galleries
Ongoing

Experience our astonishing collection of nineteenth-century European art like never before in our newly refreshed and reinstalled galleries. The thoughtful new arrangement features inspired groupings—luminous landscapes, unconventional nudes—and places paintings side by side with sculpture, furniture, prints, and even wallpaper to reveal shared sources of inspiration among the era’s greatest artists. The galleries culminate in the beautiful Rotunda, which now houses some of our best-loved works by Claude Monet, Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec, Berthe Morisot, Vincent van Gogh, and others.

Korman Galleries
Woodcuts: Groove and Grain
Opens February 28, 2020

The first prints ever created were woodcuts. In this exhibition, explore a selection of about forty woodcuts—from the 1500s to the present—that illustrate the many ways that artists have interpreted and pushed the boundaries of the medium. Focusing on line, color, and the block of wood itself, the show encourages looking at how the print was made as well as what’s depicted.

Behind the Scenes with Frame Conservation
Tuesday, February 4, 2:00–3:00 p.m.

To experience creative genius, sometimes you need to think outside the canvas. Hear from our frame conservators about all the frames that add even more to artistic masterpieces. Patrons ($1,500+) and above; reservations required.
